Recommended textbooks

- James Morwood, A Latin Grammar, Oxford University Press.
- James Morwood, Pocket Oxford Latin Dictionary, Oxford University Press. (Alternatively, https://www.online-latin-dictionary.com/english-latin-dictionary.php)
- Cambridge Latin Course, Book 1 (freely available at https://www.clc.cambridgescp.com/web-book-1?p=1)

These books are not mandatory. Handouts for each class will be provided by the lecturer.

Week	Grammar content	Topic - Vocabulary	Skills practised	Materials used
1	Pronunciation of Classical Latin Syllables and stress in Latin Introduction to cases and declensions	Greetings in Latin	reading and listening	handouts
2	Nouns of the first declension, feminine adjectives (first group), the verb to be	Questions in Latin How to introduce yourself in Latin	Speaking, reading and listening	handouts
3	Nouns of the second declension, masculine and neutral adjectives (first group), verb to have	The Roman family Describing a house in Latin	Speaking, writing, reading and listening	handouts
4	Present indicative active (1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th conjugations)	Daily life in Pompeii	Speaking, writing, reading and listening	handouts
5	Personal pronouns, possessive adjectives, imperative forms	The ancient town How to ask your way around, give and follow directions (in Latin)	Speaking, writing, reading and listening	handouts
6	Nouns of the third declension	Working in ancient Rome Going shopping (in Latin)	Speaking, writing, reading and listening	handouts
7	Deictic pronouns	Justice in Rome	Speaking, writing,	handouts

		Months, seasons and dates in Latin	reading and listening
8	Nouns of the fourth and fifth declensions	The theatre	Speaking, writing, reading and listening	handouts
9	Test and feedback	n/a	n/a	n/a
10	Adjectives of the second group, relative pronouns, interrogative pronouns	The story of Poppaea	Speaking, writing, reading and listening	handouts